SOPRANOS

Apollo Theatre, Chicago, IL
Wednesday, April 14, 2010

On December 4, 1956, an auspicious twist of fate brought together Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis, Carl Perkins and Elvis Presley. The place was Sun Records’ storefront studio in Memphis. The man who made it happen was the “Father of Rock-n-Roll,” Sam Phillips, who discovered them all. The four legends-to-be united for the only time in their careers for an impromptu recording session that embodied the birth of rock ‘n’ roll and has come to be known as one of the greatest rock jam sessions of all time. Million Dollar Quartet captures the infectious spirit, freewheeling excitement and thrilling sounds of a singular moment when four of popular music’s most extraordinary talents, all in their creative prime, came together for a night that would raise the roof.

Lunch at Sopranos

Sopranos has an authentic rustic Italian look with tables covered in red-checkered tablecloths. The Private Wine Cellar has a vaulted ceiling with authentic wine barrels. The wine list includes selections from Italy, California and Australia. The menu focuses on handmade pastas, freshly cut beef tenderloin and veal, succulent seafood and desserts made from scratch. As large groups gather from both the Apollo and Briar Street Theatres, this Lakeview hotspot truly glows with excitement.
