

C. COVID 19

Supervisor Ramey has been reviewing the releases provided by the governor with our lawyer of how the Township is to operate and move forward during the outbreak. The Township is to provide 80 hours of COVID sick leave until December 31, 2020 according to the unfunded mandate if the full-time employee is directly affected by COVID. Part-time employees will be provided with 38 hours of COVID sick leave until December 31, 2020 if directly affected by COVID. The Assessor’s Office is currently having two people in the office per day, General Assistance is reporting every other day as well as Anna Pechous our Director of Finance and Administration. The Senior Department are doing robo-calls with updates. The Township will be following the State Order and remaining closed until May 1st. We are still awaiting word from the Governor on his ruling regarding the Annual Town Meeting.
